$7.5M

The amount Philadelphia plaintiffs personal injury lawyer Tom Kline donated to his alma mater, Duquesne University School of Law, for the creation of the Thomas R. Kline Center for Judicial Education, which will collaborate with the state's nine law schools and the Pennsylvania Unified Court System to deliver continuing education courses and seminars for judges throughout the commonwealth. In 2014, Drexel University renamed its law school after Kline in honor of his $50 million donation — the largest single gift in the university's 126-year history.
