

Tom Kline and Robert Mongeluzzi To Hold 2 p.m. Briefing Following 1 p.m. NTSB Fatal Amtrak Derailment Investigation Update

Media Advisory

Tom Kline, Esq., of Kline & Specter, P.C., and Robert J. Mongeluzzi, Esq., of Saltz, Mongeluzzi, Barrett & Bendesky, P.C., will hold a joint media briefing to discuss the insights into and implications of the expected release by the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) of thousands of pages of investigative reports/summaries, photos, and on-board vehicle event (Black Box) recordings and other materials regarding the May 12, 2015 Amtrak Train 188 derailment that killed eight people and injured more than 200 others. The lawyers, whose firms filed the first passenger lawsuits following the derailment, will also provide a litigation update. SMBB represents 17 passengers who have filed claims, Kline & Specter represents 12 victims, including two death claims. All Train 188 cases have been consolidated in U.S. District Court, in Philadelphia.
